YOUTH HIKE JUNE 21ST

Attention teens,

- 8:15: Meet at Saint Peter and depart for Saint Stephen's Catholic Church
- 9:30: Mass at Saint Stephen's with Father Murphy
- 10:15: Depart Saint Stephen's bound for Sky Meadows
- 11:00: Arrive at Sky Meadows/tour of Bleak House
- 12:00: Hit the trail; we will have lunch at the top of Piedmont Overlook
- 4:00: Leave Sky Meadows
- 5:00: Arrive back at Saint Peter

Things to bring: Water, water, water, a packed lunch and any extra snacks you might want (trail mix, granola bars), sun screen and bug spray, a day pack, rain jacket, and extra money if you want to get anything from the awesome gift shop. There is no fee to participate; I will be willing to pay the entrance fee into the park.

If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to e-mail me at DCUnited62@gmail.com. If you want to go, please e-mail me by the 19th, so I can know how many people we should be expecting. That is all I have for now; I hope to hear from you/see you soon! God bless,

Nick Riedel

A REFLECTION

"If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me." (LUKE 9:23)

We are not very good at "denying ourselves" in our society. Our current economic situation is evidence of what happens when people think they can have everything they want. Jesus calls us to set our own personal "wants" aside so that we have the resources to follow Him instead.

EUCCHARISTIC HOLY HOUR

The Arlington Division of the World Apostolate of Fatima (the Blue Army) will sponsor a diocesan-wide Eucharistic Holy Hour on Sunday, June 26 from 3:00 – 4:00 p.m. at St.

John the Evangelist Catholic Church, 271 Winchester Street, Warrenton. We hope you can join us in prayer.

Why is attending a Holy Hour Important?

"Looking at the Eucharistic Lord for an hour transforms the heart in a mysterious way as the face of Moses was transformed after his companionship with God on the mountain." (excerpt from "Treasure in Clay: The Autobiography of Fulton Sheen").

"Not so easily was I remade as made. He spoke and all things were made. But while He made me simply and at once by a word, He has in the remaking of me said many words, and worked wonders and suffered much." (St. Bernard) Discover more gold nuggets like this one in the Legion of Mary Handbook by coming to our meetings on Friday at 9:30 am.!

PASTOR'S PIECE

Dear friends,

TOM JUNK ELECTED GRAND KNIGHT FRED EGGERS IS KNIGHT OF THE YEAR

Congratulations to TOM JUNK who was elected last Monday as Grand Knight of our Knight's council. Many thanks to BOB WARD who has served as Grand Knight this past year. I am grateful for all that you have done. The knights have continued to build up the parish community with "second Sundays", picnics, dinners, and generosity to the parish and many other outreaches. The Knights have continued to "spearhead" our parish efforts to feed the poor in conjunction with the Arlington Diocese St. Lucy project and our local Rappahannock Food Pantry. FRED EGGERS was chosen "Knight of the Year" by Grand Knight Bob Ward for his work with the council, the food pantry, and the St. Lucy Project with Catholic Charities. Congratulations to Fred and deep thanks to Bob Ward for their service to the parish and the community.

I am leading a tour next summer to France (Cruising Burgundy & Provence to the Cote d'Azur) from July 27—August 8, 2017. I have put the brochure in a manila folder on the table in the vestibule of the Church (left side). Most of the trip is on the Rhone River in southern France. We will start in Paris and end up in Nice. We have reserved the whole boat so the trip should be fun. Join us if you can!

Castleton in Performance Presents: Serenade!

Two Esteemed Choral Groups Tour America for the First Time

Two professional ensembles hailing from Europe — Musicafieta from Italy and Koris Logos from Latvia — are touring America for the first time, performing at the state-of-the-art Castleton Theatre House on Saturday, June 25 at 4pm. The groups will present classic, contemporary, and polyphonic music by John Tavener, Giovanni Palestrina, Pablo Casals, among others. Ticket prices range from $20-$40. For more information or to purchase tickets, go to www.castletonfestival.org or call 540-937-3454.

“We’re so pleased to welcome Musicafieta and Koris Logos to Castleton,” says CEO and Artistic Director Dietlinde Turban Maazel, “and believe that the incomparable acoustics of the Theatre House will be equally thrilling to both the singers and the audience. These songs were meant to be sung here.” The 138-seat air-conditioned proscenium theatre has an orchestra pit and seating on the orchestra level and in the balcony.

The Italian choir, Musicafieta, was founded in 2001 by its present director Andrea Angelini. Mr. Angelini is a sought after Artistic Director and Guest Conductor, most notably the Artistic Director of the International Festival Voices from America and the Sound of the Organ held annually in Rimini each spring.

Koris Logos traces the genesis of their group to the “Singing Revolution”, which restored independence to Latvia in the late 80s, and a resurgence of popular interest in traditional sacred choir music. Leading the Latvian Culture Fund’s Choir during the 90’s, conductor and priest Ioanne Shenrock gave many performances in Latvia, Russia, Germany, and elsewhere in Europe, receiving recognition at international festivals and competitions.

Castleton in Performance has hosted the world’s greatest artists, including Wynton Marsalis, Sir James Galway, Itzhak Perlman, Jose Carreras, and countless more. Please join us for this spectacular program. This concert is presented in partnership with Classical Movements.
